

BUKOW & KÖNIG

BUKOW & KÖNIG

BUKOW & KÖNIG

BUKOW & KÖNIG

Alexander Bukow works fast, goal-oriented and sometimes on the margins of the law. He knows Rostock, the seaside town at the Baltic coast, like the back of his hand and is very good connected. He can be very charming, regardless if it is a friend or an enemy, but never reveals much about himself. After spending his childhood in Rostock, he moved to Berlin and joined the police force. There he did patrol car duties, studied further to get higher school certificates and eventually made it to detective superintendent. Bukow is married and has two young children.

Katrin König has a perfect reputation as an analyst and profiler and is appreciated for her assessments and professionalism. Katrin believes in absolute justice and fights for it! She never lets anyone get the better of her. She knows how to hit the nail on the head by always finding the right words to say. Her colleagues can count on her 100%; but she alone decides just how close someone can get to her, both professionally and in her private life.

11

CRANIAL CONFUSION

Achim Hiller, manager of the Hilgro Wind Company, is found dead in a disused shipyard in Rostock. While König and Bukow begin their investigation, a mentally confused man attracts attention in Rostock's pedestrian zone. When it becomes clear that the unknown man is a member of the IT staff of Hilgro Wind, all of the evidence seems to suggest that there is a direct connection to Hiller's murder.

12

TURNING MANOEUVRE

During an arson attack on a company in Magdeburg, the wife of the junior manager dies. Just a few hours later in a hotel in Rostock, the corpse of an auditor is discovered. Bukow and König have to solve an extremely complex case, the beginnings of which date back to the political and economic upheavals associated with East Germany in the early 1990s.

13

IN THE SHADOWS

In close cooperation with the customs office, Katrin König and Alexander Bukow arrest a drug courier. In doing so, drugs to the tune of more than 5 million euros are discovered. A great success! The next day, Martin Angerer, the customs chief, is found brutally murdered. He was investigating the Calabrian mafia, Ndrangheta, for whom Rostock harbour is an important hub in the international drug trade.

14

FEAR JUSTIFIES THE MEANS

A homeless person is raped and abused, then found dead on a bench in the village of Bassow, near Rostock. Without hesitation, the village community knows immediately who did it - Kukulies and Buschke, two criminals only just recently released from prison. But Bukow and König soon come across several inconsistencies in the testimonies of the community.

15

ONE FOR ALL - ALL FOR ROSTOCK

The murder of a football fan leads investigators Alexander Bukow and Katrin König into the milieu of Rostock's extreme football fans. It is easy enough to find suspects, especially since some of them have been offenders in a previous case. Back then, they had beaten a policeman into a coma during a football game. But why kill a friend from within their own ranks?

16

IN FLAMES

The right-wing populist politician Silvia Schulte, stands as a candidate in Rostock for the PFS, with the intention of becoming mayor. Shortly afterwards, she's been burned to death in a field. Inspectors Alexander Bukow and Katrin König find the charred corpse. It is apparent that the perpetrators used extreme brutality. An act of vengeance?

BUKOW & KÖNIG

ONE OF US

1 Alexander Bukow and Katrin König are conducting investigations in Rostock's drug scene: in their first joint case, they are looking for the killer of two 13-year-old girls. Chief inspector Bukow has only just returned to Rostock, his home town, from Berlin. His past is not entirely unstained and Katrin König isn't sure where her new colleague's allegiances really lie.

AQUARIUS

2 Family man Maik Lehmann dies after stepping on a land mine at Warnow riverside. Shortly after, Schulte, an old friend of inspector Bukow, is also found dead on the beach. Profiler König finds a photo taken in the 1980s: Schulte is hugging Lehmann while both of them are wearing diving suits. The investigators are confronted with a mystery, forcing them to delve into long-forgotten German history...

CONCEPT OF THE ENEMY

3 The death of a Serb leads profiler König and Inspector Bukow on the track of Lutz Brückmann. For years, the desperate father has been unsuccessfully trying to bring a major pharmaceutical company to justice for the death of his daughter. When Brückmann unexpectedly receives solid evidence proving the company's guilt, he and his former wife find themselves in deadly peril...

GAME OVER

4 The body of a pensioner is found in the boot of a car wreck. To investigate the case Bukow and König enter into the world of refuse and car wreck collectors, in which they encounter a wickerwork of human destinies. What initially appeared to be the murder of a homeless person turns out to be extortion in connection with illegal hazardous waste disposal at the refuse dump in Rostock.

BEAR ONE ANOTHER'S BURDENS

5 Jailbird Kevin Schulz escapes when his prisoner transport is ambushed in broad daylight by two men in police uniforms. Bukow and König receive an emergency call: a witness observed two men who brutally attacked a third man. On arrival at the crime scene König and Bukow discover the prisoner, dead. Who goes through the bother of freeing a soon released prisoner only to kill him beforehand?

SILENCE

6 Young rocker Ricky and a midwife are found dead on a country road in the German state of Mecklenburg. Initial clues lead state police inspector Bukow to Rostock's motorbike club "Satanic Riders", who due to their criminal tendencies have been a subject of state police observation. When questioning the rockers Bukow is confronted with a wall of silence.

FISHERMEN'S END

7 Inspectors König and Bukow are confronted with an acrimonious dispute between German and Polish fishermen. Aged fisherman Thomsen is found dead and the inspectors from Rostock quickly find themselves faced with the question, whether or not Thomsen was the victim of a feud between locals and the crew of a Polish trawler. Journalist Nina Berger seems to know a great deal more about Thomsen and his death, but is unwilling to cooperate with the police.

BETWEEN WORLDS

8 Young mother and law student Julia is murdered in a wooded area close to Rostock. Her daughter little Franzl survived the crime. She leads Bukow to her mother's corpse. The child is traumatised - why Julia, of all people? This is the question everyone seems to be asking. Try as they may, Bukow and König are unable to find a motive for the murder. Was it simply a coincidental meeting between victim and perpetrator?

LOVE MANIA

9 Bukow and König encounter a particularly brutal murder: a teacher has had his tongue cut out. The evidence doesn't lead to the Russian mafia as initially assumed, but to the SM swinger scene. When the inspectors themselves come into focus of the murderer, every second counts to prevent further tragedy.

FAMILY AFFAIRS

10 Katrin König and Alexander Bukow find themselves in the middle of a family drama. Arne Kreuz, a hitherto respectable family father, is in free fall after losing his wife and job. He has killed his wife and his youngest son and is now on the run - but there are also no signs of his children Nicole and Jonas. A race against time begins.

Format	90' each, to be continued HD
Original title	Polizeiruf 110 – Rostock
Genre	Fiction crime
Script	various
Director	various
Cast	Charly Hübner, Anneke Kim Sarnau, Andreas Guenther, Josef Heynert, Uwe Preuss, Klaus Manchen a.m.o.
Production	filmPOOL fiction for NDR