Schwarzwaldhof HOTEL

FURTHER EPISODES

After the death of her husband, Veronica decides to take on the challenge and assume control of the family owned hotel.

Albert's dementia needs special attention and a severe virus infection threatens the hotel's trout farm.

Broke, homeless and affected by a weak heart, Veronika's mother returns after 25 years and causes pleasure as well as displeasure.

Financial problems and Dora's deceiving games cause an open conflict in the family.

Deeply hurt Stefan lures guests away from the hotel after a big fall out with his mother.

Schwarzwaldhof HOTEL

So much love

Love sickness in the Schwarzwaldhof: Ever since Max finally moved in with Veronika he has felt neglected. Their relationship threatens to freeze in everyday routine. Then, to make matters worse, Veronika's old heartthrob Richard moves into the hotel and begins to woo her. Meanwhile, her son is in seventh heaven. He has fallen in love with the charming Polish girl, Ewa, who has applied for the position of caring for his grandfather Albert. Veronika's mother Lore would prefer to employ an older, less attractive nurse, but Albert is also enchanted by Ewa's uninhibited nature.

There can be no question of butterflies in Stefan's sister Merle's stomach. She is forced to realise that her marriage to head chef Martin has reached a dead end. The ambitious culinary artist thinks only of his job and spends his time from morning to night in the kitchen. In his leisure time he is tired and weary. He tries to diminish the stress with alcohol and slides straight into addiction. Merle attempts to help him, but in vain. The situation escalates, until Martin, in desperation, sees no way out and makes a dramatic decision.
