MOM HER LADY FRIEND AND I

Jan is a failing book store owner and has to deal with his domineering mother and her beguiling and headstrong friend Rosalie. On top of that his flat mate Hannah is using Jan`s life as inspiration for her own comedy show. How does a man like Jan hold up to so many powerful women in his life? Does he have to? It seems like sperm donation is the only use for a man like him. Beeing fixated on his mother and beeing an expert on the writings of Marcel Proust, what chances does he have to finally "man up" and lead his life?
