GLORIA

MY SISTER'S MOST BEAUTIFUL COW

Apart from a casual affair with Gerd, a travelling livestock feed sales representative, farm girl Jutta's life purely revolves around back-breaking farm work and her cow Gloria. Gloria is a fabulous cow, the most beautiful in the state. Jutta wants Gloria to win the Miss Germany title for cows. For Jutta, Gloria is the be all and end all of her little world. However, her brother Thomas, who visits unexpectedly after their father's death, finds her devotion to this cow highly irritating. Admittedly, Gloria is rather special, but nevertheless a cow. But he is not allowed to say this around Jutta. And whenever he brings up the subject of inheritance claims, the atmosphere becomes tense. The siblings get embroiled in a massive row almost as fierce as back when they were kids. But their fights make them both question a few things: Can Jutta carry on with her life as if it were business as usual and run the farm alone? Besides, what is the reason behind Thomas' sudden appearance? For both of them it's time to face the truth.
