Leo Roth is Germany's most successful media lawyer. She navigates the political arena with her Berlin law firm as surefootedly as she does the glamour world of the rich and famous. For Leo Roth, work has only one purpose: to win every case. Her aim is to protect the privacy of her celebrity and non-celebrity clients, shaping public opinion at the same time. She aspires to stamp out fake news and media smear campaigns and shield people from media character assassination through false reporting, shitstorms and Twitterstorms. As the series progresses, the lawyer becomes entangled in a treacherous mesh of political and private intrigues. The cases deal with highly topical issues such as hate speech, violation of personal rights and fake news. The character Leo Roth was inspired by Germany's best-known media lawyer.
