CLUELESS in Ireland

For Connie, things have been going to plan for many years, both professionally and in her private life. That is, until the son of the CEO takes over the business, forcing new demands on the workforce. In future, English is to be the business language. English? Fluently? Hard to believe, but „Mrs. Perfect“ hardly speaks a word of English and suffers from a veritable language blockage. Not wanting to lose her job, Connie immediately signs up for an intensive English language course in Ireland.
